Section: Finance
Subject: Excessive Luxury & Expenditures Policy
Adopted: 9/2022

Board Policy Manual

ECIP – Excessive Luxury & Expenditures Policy

Peninsula Community Federal Credit Union, as a participant and recipient in the Emergency Capital Investment Program (ECIP), is required to establish and maintain policies designed to eliminate excessive or luxury expenditures.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish parameters and internal controls governing the expenditures of Peninsula Community Federal Credit Union together with its CUSO subsidiaries (Credit Union). Expenditures of the Credit Union should be customary, prudent, consistent with applicable laws and regulations, and reasonably related to the Credit Union’s business objectives and needs. This policy identifies expenditures that are excessive or luxury expenditures, creates processes that are reasonably designed to eliminate such expenditures, and establishes accountability for compliance.

Authority

The Credit Union has authority to provide compensation and benefits that are reasonable. This policy establishes a prohibition on expenditures that are excessive or luxury expenditures as required by the Department of the Treasury’s Emergency Capital Investment Program regulations (31 CFR Part 35), and as may be required by other statutes and regulations.

Responsibility

This policy is the responsibility of the Credit Union’s Board of Directors (Board). The Board has approved this policy and will review compliance with this policy no less frequently than annually, and summary data on excessive or luxury expenditures will be reported to the Board as part of the compliance review.

Scope

This policy applies to all employees, officers, and directors of the Credit Union with regard to any expenditure of the Credit Union. In making any expenditure on behalf of the Credit Union, employees, officers, and directors should consider whether the expenditure is an excessive or luxury expenditure that is prohibited under this policy.
Excessive or Luxury Expenditures

“Excessive or luxury expenditures” means excessive expenditures on any of the following to the extent not reasonable or appropriate expenditures for business development, staff development, reasonable performance incentives, or other similar reasonable measures conducted in the normal course of the Credit Union’s business operations:

A. Entertainment or events. This category includes fees, dues, tickets costs related to social, athletic, artistic and dining clubs, activities, celebrations or other events, and similar expenditures. Expenditures for charitable contributions and charitable events are not prohibited under this policy. Entertainment or events expenditures in an amount less than $8,000 individual instance, and $50,000 on an annual aggregate basis per individual, are exempt from this Policy.

B. Office and facility renovations. This category includes costs and allowances for office renovation, including expenditures related to furniture, art, office personalization, interior finishing, design and decoration, and similar expenditures. Office and facility renovations expenditures in an amount less than $25,000 per individual instance, and $75,000 on an annual aggregate basis per individual, are exempt from this policy.

C. Transportation Expenses. This category includes charter fees, tickets, vehicle installment payments, reservation and travel agent expenses, and similar expenditures associated with transportation services (e.g., airline, train, rental cars, or vans). Mileage reimbursable according to current Internal Revenue Service mileage rates is exempt from this policy. Transportation services in an amount less than $5,000 per individual instance, and $30,000 on an annual aggregate basis per individual, are exempt from this policy. The CEO may establish or delegate to an appropriate executive officer the authority to establish processes for reimbursement of reasonable travel expenditures, which processes must be reviewed by executive management no less frequently than annually.

D. Tax gross-ups. This category includes any reimbursement of taxes owed with respect to any compensation. This category does not apply to tax equalization agreements for employees subject to tax from a non-U.S. jurisdiction.

E. Other Expenses or Reimbursements: Expenditures related to other items not listed in the preceding categories are exempt from this Policy in an amount less than $2,500 per individual instance, and together with all expenditures permitted under this Policy, may not exceed $10,000 on an annual aggregate basis per individual. Reasonable capital investments in technology, equipment, and similar items that expand the long-term capability of the Credit Union to provide products and services to its members and community are not excessive or luxury expenditures.

The CEO may establish or delegate to an appropriate executive officer the authority to establish processes for the evaluation and approval of expenditures in the preceding categories that are not luxury or excessive expenditures and that are not otherwise exempt from this Policy. These processes must be reviewed by executive management no less frequently than annually, as well as any additional threshold expenditure amounts per item, activity, or event, or a threshold expenditure amount per employee. receiving the item or participating in the activity or event under this Policy. Such approvals must be reported to the Board of Directors no less frequently than annually.

Expectations and Violations

Any exception or violation of this policy must be promptly reported to the (i) Credit Union CEO, (ii) officer with primary responsibility for the Credit Union’s compliance function, or (iii) officer designated with primary responsibility for overseeing the administration, monitoring, and compliance with this Policy. Exceptions and violations must be reported to the Board of Directors no less frequently than annually, or more frequently as the nature and severity of violation may warrant. All employees, officers, and directors of the Credit Union must adhere to this Policy and will be held accountable for compliance. Any employee or officer who violates this policy may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Any employee or officer that is aware of any circumstance that may indicate a violation of this policy is required to report such circumstance to their supervisor or the Credit Union CEO or Credit Union Board Chair, as necessary. The Credit Union prohibits retaliation against any employee or officer for making a good faith report of actual or suspected violations of the Credit Union’s code of conduct, laws, regulations, or other Credit Union policies, including this Policy. A finding of retaliation against any such employee or officer may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Failure to promptly report known violations by others may also be deemed a violation of the Credit Union’s code of conduct. Employees and officers may ask questions, raise concerns, or report instances of non-compliance with this policy and/or any of the existing underlying relevant policies by compliance@pcfcu.org.

Compliance Certification

On an annual basis, the Credit Union will deliver to the Department of the Treasury a certification, executed by the CEO and CFO certifying that (i) the Credit Union is in compliance with this policy and (ii) the approval of any expenditure requiring the prior approval of any senior executive officer, any executive officer of a substantially similar level of responsibility, or the Board of Directors was properly obtained with respect to each such expenditure.

Policy Amendments & Availability

Any material amendments to this Policy must made in accordance with the provisions set forth in 31 CFR 35.22(d) If the Credit Union makes any material amendments to this policy, then the Credit Union must submit a copy of the amended policy to the Department of the Treasury and post the amended policy on the Credit Union website.

Internal Controls

A. Board of Directors
B. Management